

Advanced Motivational Interviewing

Presented by Stephanie Wahab, Ph.D.

This workshop is designed for individuals who have completed formal introductory training in MI, and have experience using MI in an applied setting. This workshop is not designed to introduce the clinical method itself. Participants will be guided through a sequence of learning activities to move from basic competence to more advanced clinical skillfulness in their own areas of work. Learning activities will include: demonstrations, video-tape examples, "real-plays" case studies, small group exercises, and significant participant practice with in-the-moment feedback. This advanced MI workshop will practice the MI skills learned during introductory MI trainings, develop advanced skills for eliciting change talk and rolling with resistance.

Approved for 6 CEs.

Ms. Wahab is an Associate Professor at Portland State University's School of Social Work. She has been practicing motivational interviewing (MI) for the past 16 years and has been an MI trainer since 2000. Dr. Wahab had the good fortune of being trained by Dr. Bill Miller as well as other key MI practitioners and scholars. She is a member of the international network of MI trainers known as MINT. She teaches MI at PSU and trains individuals and organizations locally and nationally. She has trained individuals in MI in the areas of substance use, dual diagnoses, domestic violence, case management, dietary modification, smoking cessation, harm reduction, public health, and HIV/AIDS prevention. She has also been engaged in a number of federally funded intervention studies using MI including a current community based participatory research project in Portland with African American survivors of intimate partner violence who have also experienced depression.
