

Afrocentric Approaches to Clinical Services

Friday, April 30, 2010

9:00 AM-4:30 PM

NASW Oregon Chapter is pleased to sponsor "Afrocentric Approaches to Clinical Services," scheduled for Friday, April 30, 2010. The workshop will be held at Southern classrooms, St. Vincent Medical Center, Portland

Presenters are Danette C. Burchill, LCSW and Andre Pruitt, LCSW. Danette specializes in working with depression, anxiety, trauma, psychotic disorders, life change transitions and spirituality. Her primary method of treatment is cognitive behavioral therapy with dialectical behavior therapy skills taught as well. She has experience in working with multicultural populations and issues of identity. Andre specializes in Posttraumatic Stress Disorder, depression, anxiety, support around sexual orientation, developing spirituality for healing, grief and loss, identity development.

This workshop will help practitioners gain concrete skills in working with African-American clients.

This conference is approved for 6 hours.

Please fill out the registration form below and send with a check to the chapter office or you can pay with a credit card through Cvent (see Online registration)
