

Situational Ethics, Personal Values & Decision Making

Agenda / Outline

3 hours

- 9:00 – 9:30 Introductions
 Identification of goals/objectives and needs of participants
- 9:30 – 10:15 Interactive activity to illustrate situational ethics, ethical relativism, three broad categories of Kantian ethical stances
 Didactic presentation of ethical theory
- 10:15 – 10:30 Break
- 10:30 – 11:00 Overview and discussion of values framework informing ethical decision-making
 Integration with NASW Code of Ethics and cardinal values
- 11:00 – 12:15 Generate case examples (large group)
 Application of theory to case examples (small groups, with supplemental scenarios as needed)
 Large group debrief
 Take-home messages and session evaluation