Social workers elect board members

Portland, Oregon—The Oregon Chapter of the National Association of Social Workers (NASW) recently elected the following social workers to its board of directors: Pauline Jivanjee as vice president; Amy Reynolds as treasurer elect; Dawn Williamson, Rebecca Williams, Elaine Charpentier-Philippi, Graciela Molina Dacker and Gary Smith as regional representatives; Sara Jackson and Robin Davis as student representatives.

The chapter has 1,800 members throughout the state with headquarters located in Portland.

The NASW Oregon Chapter, founded in 1971, promotes, develops and protects the practice of social work and advocates for policies that enhance the well-being of individuals, families and communities. It is a state chapter of the NASW, the largest membership organization of professional social workers in the world with 145,000 members.
