

Managing Difficult Ethical Dilemmas and Risks in Social Work

Presented by Frederic G. Reamer, Ph.D.

This workshop will provide participants with an overview and in-depth examination of compelling ethical challenges in social work. Building on introductory ethics concepts, this workshop will explore difficult ethics cases and practical strategies designed to protect clients and practitioners. The workshop will include a series of challenging ethics cases involving conflicting professional duties and discuss practical steps that professionals can take to manage ethical issues skillfully. Key topics will include boundary issues, dual relationships, conflicts of interest, confidentiality, privileged communication, informed consent, clients' rights, termination of services, and impaired professionals. The workshop will include discussion of relevant ethical standards; statutes, regulations, and case law; social and cultural diversity and competence; supervision; and consultation. The workshop will focus especially on complex documentation issues. The presenter will make extensive use of case material and provide ample opportunity for audience participation.

Approved for 6 CEs.

Frederic G. Reamer is a Professor in the graduate program of the School of Social Work, Rhode Island College, where he has been on the faculty since 1983.
