

Making the Leadership Leap

Friday, October 15, 2010

9:00 AM-4:00 PM

NASW Oregon Chapter is pleased to sponsor "Making the Leadership Leap," scheduled for Friday, October 15, 2010. The workshop will be held at Emanuel Hospital, Lorenzen Center 1700, 2801 N. Gantenbein, Portland 97227.

Presenter David Fuks, MSW has been an active leader in Oregon's human services community for over thirty years. He received his MSW from University of Michigan in 1974. He has served as the Executive Director of the Southwest Youth Service Center, the Edgefield Children's Center and the Oregon Juvenile Services Commission. He was Regional Administrator for the Metro Region Children Services Division and Coordinator of the Regional Drug Initiative in Multnomah County.

This workshop will help participants to see distinctions between direct clinical services and responsibilities involved in managing clinicians, paraprofessionals and staff in complex organizations. Additionally, ethics explorations will use vignettes taken from management of human services organizations. Emphasis will be given to assure that participants can see how knowledge and self awareness gained from clinical experience can be transferred into management experience and where new knowledge must also be acquired.

This conference is approved for 6 hours.

Please fill out the registration form below and send with a check to the chapter office or you can pay with a credit card through CVent (see Online registration)
