For your next Career Fair, consider having a professional Social Worker host a table to discuss the meaningful career of Social Work and the variety of academic pathways that can be taken.

SOCIAL WORK: ONE PROFESSION. COUNTLESS POSSIBILITIES.

Who are Social Workers? What do Social Workers do? How do you become a Social Worker?

These are just some of the questions that students have about Social Work and Social Workers. NASW is proud to announce the creation of a Social Work Speakers' Bureau as a resource to career centers and career counselors at both the high school and community college level. The purpose of the speakers' bureau program is to provide social workers who will speak about what the Social Work profession is, the variety of job opportunities there are within the field of Social Work and to share their own unique stories and experiences. The profession of Social Work is for those that want a career with meaning, action, diversity, satisfaction, and an abundance of options. Currently in Oregon there are five Bachelors of Social Work Programs and one Masters of Social Work Program.
